

R 1.40 Etimoe Ice

This is a Residence kitchen in an Etimoe Ice finish, with an Xtone Mater White Texture countertop. The two materials have been combined to stylish effect, as illustrated by the breakfast bar, allowing users to take far more advantage of this part of the home. The kitchen also contains substantial storage space, thanks to its spacious drawers and cupboards fitted with different storage trays. Various shelves can be found in the area where the backsplash is to keep everything within easy reach as you cook, in addition to LED lighting to lend the whole ensemble a greater visual appeal.
